

DMI Peace River Pulp Division: Winner of Achievers 50 Most Engaged Workplaces™ in Canada

Peace River, Alberta, January 14, 2014

Daishowa-Marubeni International Ltd. (DMI), Peace River Pulp Division (PRPD) has been selected as one of the top 50 companies in Canada for the prestigious Achievers Award. Achievers today announced its Achievers 50 Most Engaged Workplaces™ in the United States and Canada for 2013. This annual award recognizes top employers that display leadership and innovation in engaging employees making their workplaces more productive. The awards honour the top 50 companies in the U.S. and the top 50 companies in Canada.

“We are honoured to have been selected as a workplace that recognizes the value of our team members. As a company, we understand that diversity in culture, skills, attitudes, and lifestyles contribute to a strong and motivated environment. We are proud to receive an award that represents our commitment to our people – engagement, communication, leadership, culture, recognition, professional and personal growth, accountability and performance, vision, values, and corporate social responsibility,” stated Bill Downing, Mill Manager of the Peace River Pulp Division.

The panel of 14 judges included various academics and thought leaders on employee engagement, and included representation from organizations such as the Society for Human Resource Management (SHRM), Human Resources Professionals Association (HRPA), and Human Capital Institute (HCI) and Northern California HR Association.

Recipients of the Achievers 50 Most Engaged Workplaces™ Awards will be honored at award galas on March 6, 2014 in Toronto..
